

Please do not override the Indiana privacy law. The general law would not be as comprehensive as the Indiana law and would allow some calls to resume in our state. It is very nice to be able to sit down to a meal in the evening without the phone ringing with irritating solicitation calls for things we are not interested in.